

Christmas 2016

The damp weather could not dampen the enthusiasm of the children when it came to celebrating 2016. As has been the tradition we visited the YMCA for a Kindy Gym session first and then back to the Kindergarten for a shared lunch with all our whānau. In preparation for our party the children assembled the drift wood tree making sure we started with the largest branches at the bottom.

